Dear Guidance Counselor/Director:

The National Coalition of 100 Black Women's education mission includes encouraging minority females to achieve academically, to pursue higher education, and to give back to their respective communities. Serious about assisting young women in attaining their academic goals, NCBW-Southern New Jersey Chapter has awarded scholarships to over 70 young women over the past four years.

We are interested in minority females who have demonstrated a commitment to service in school and/or their communities, as well as a commitment to academic excellence. Selected students will receive a minimum five-hundred dollar scholarship.

Sincerely,

Scholarship Committee

Mary B. McLaughlin
