

The Greater Woodbury Cooperative Ministries
Essay Scholarship

An Essay on Peace

Guidelines:

1. The scholarship is open to all Woodbury High School Seniors.
2. Students must write a 500-700 word essay on the topic, "Is Peace an Outdated Concept? Why or Why Not?"
3. Each essay will be judged on content, correct use of language, and clarity of argument.
4. A $200 scholarship will be awarded to the essay that best meets the above criteria. The scholarship will be awarded at the Woodbury High School Graduation, June 2010.
5. All essays must be submitted to the Woodbury High School Guidance Office by May 10, 2010.

Sponsored by: Bethlehem Baptist Church, Central Baptist Church, Christ Episcopal Church, Colonial Manor United Methodist Church, Kemble Memorial United Methodist Church, The Presbyterian Church at Woodbury, St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, and Woodbury Friends Meeting. The greater Woodbury Cooperative Ministries is a non-profit organization comprised of churches and faith communities who work together to promote ecumenical understanding and cooperation among faith communities of the greater Woodbury area.
