

Welcome back Teachers!

You should know that there are many exciting opportunities in the upcoming season to enrich the lives of your students. Our 1000+ seat theatre and high quality productions will make you feel like you are on Broadway without having to leave your own backyard. Open the imaginations of your students today!

We want you to be the first to know about our student matinee for grades 5 & up of Harper Lee's classic, To Kill a Mockingbird. This landmark novel has been adapted for the stage by Christopher Sergel and is certain to bring Atticus, Scout and Jem into focus for your students. This special matinee will be held on March 24, 2010 at 10am. Matinee includes a post-show talkback and study guide and is reasonably priced at $10 per student.

Each month, Mr. Malcolm invites children of all ages to join in his favorite story-time adventures. These interactive productions are geared toward children ages 3-14 years but parents are sure to have a ball. Remaining shows this season are listed on the back of this page along with our exceptional group rates.

For those who have no fear of talking plants that go "bump" in the night, we have Little Shop of Horrors. This spoof on science fiction movies of the 1960's may even inspire a science experiment or two!

There's no denying that children are growing up too fast these days. Let's see if we can slow that down a little with this November's production of Peter Pan – the classic tale of a boy who refused to grow up. Now is the time to plan a family night for your school and encourage students and parents to take a break from their hectic lives and spend time together.

Please see below for a listing of dates, times and ticket prices for these upcoming productions. We offer money saving group rates for both Children's Theatre and Mainstage productions. You can also visit our website at www.pitmanbroadwaytheatre.com for more information.

To arrange an exciting personal group for any of these events, please contact me at 609-647-3137 or by emailing sgafgen@broadwaytheatreofpitman.com.

I look forward to hearing from you!
