Dear Colleague,

The Gloucester County Education Association would like to cordially invite you to attend a very special workshop! We are sponsoring a presentation by Detective Sgt. Steven LaPorta of the Gloucester County Prosecutor's Office entitled, "What is CyberBullying?" on January 25, 2012, 7:00 PM, Nicolosi's Catering.

This informational program is open to all members, parents, students, administrators, and other community members who want to learn how to help protect our children from the insidious bullying that can take place over the Internet!

Please feel free to pass this information along to anyone you think would be interested in attending.

I have enclosed a flyer with registration information.

We hope to see you there!

Sincerely,

Susan Clark, President

Workshop: What is Cyber Bullying?
A "Pride in Public Education" event for parents, students, and members

This program is designed to help you encourage your students to make smart decisions about personal publishing, particularly when using social media. No longer limited to schoolyards or street corners, modern-day bullying can happen at home as well as at school—essentially 24 hours a day. And, for kids who are being cyber bullied, it can feel like there's no escape. This workshop is so "today"!

When: Wednesday, January 25th, 7:00 P.M.

Where: Nicolosis Caterers w/dinner provided

Register as soon as possible but no later than Monday, January 23, 2011

To register: www.gceanj.org

*Click on "workshop" then "register for workshop"
(you must be registered to attend/have valid picture ID available)*
