Take Your Child to Work Day

April 23rd, 2009 is designated as Take Your Child to Work Day. This day is designed to expand opportunities for children, expose them to what adults in their lives do during the work day, show them the value of their education, and give them an opportunity to share how they envision their future. It is intended to be more than a career day. Each year, workplaces and adults around the country recognize its benefits and participate in the program to support our nation's future leaders.

West End Memorial Elementary School will also honor this day. If your child will be accompanying you to work on this day, we ask that you complete the attached form or send in a note prior to April 23rd. With an accompanying note, your child will be excused from school.

Educationally Yours,

Vincent Myers
Principal
